Night Of Knives Malazan Empire

Night of the Knives is the first book written by Esslemont and the first instalment in the Malaz Empire story arc. I read many reviews claiming that Esslemont isn't a good writer and many trashing his series but after finishing this book I can say that these critics are exaggerated, sure his writing is more direct and less elaborate than Erikson's but this isn't by all means a bad thing.

Night of Knives (Novels of the Malazan Empire, #1)

Night of Knives is far more streamlined than any of the preceding Malazan novels; though we're seeing a key piece of the world's history, the novel's roughly a third of the length of Erikson's slimmest contribution, and we're doing it from two new, easily accessible view points.
