The Nature of Adoption in Islam . The guardian/child relationship has specific rules under Islamic law, which renders the relationship a bit different than adoption in other cultures, where adoptive children become virtually identical to birth children in the eyes of the law.The Islamic term for what is commonly called adoption is kafala, which comes from a word that means "to feed."

How Adoption Is Practiced in Islam
Islam calls for faith in only one God, Who is the only one worthy of worship. The Prophet Muhammad was a perfect example of an honest, just, merciful, compassionate, truthful, and brave human being. Though he was a man, he was far removed from all evil characteristics and strove solely for the sake of God and His reward in the Hereafter. ...
